

Dr. Carlos Bilbao

Law degree from the Bolivian Catholic University San Pablo, with specialization in administrative law and regulation, with extensive and proven experience in matters related to intellectual property, with emphasis on trademarks, patents and appellations of origin, from the institutional, business and private aspects. Experience in teaching and training in related subjects and others in postgraduate courses. Worked as Head of the Opposition Area of the National Service of Intellectual Property SENAPI (National Service of Intellectual Property) (2013 - 2019), in the review of draft Administrative Resolutions and Administrative Acts in opposition, cancellation and nullity processes of trademarks. Languages: Spanish, English and German.