

Dr. Daiana Pereira

Degree in Law and Social Sciences (2021) and Notary Public Degree (2015), Facultad de Derecho, Universidad de la República, Uruguay. Technician in Computer Security (2021). Graduated from Instituto BIOS, Uruguay. Studying a Master in Intellectual Property and Technology Law at the European University of Madrid, Spain. Member of the Uruguayan Association of Notary Publics (AEU). Spokeswoman of the Chamber for the Fight against Piracy and Smuggling (CALPYC) since 2020; and President of the Uruguayan Chapter of the Center of Studies for the Development of Telecommunications and Access to the Information Society in Latin America (CERTAL) since 2022. Legal experience in Anti-Piracy, Signal Piracy and Audiovisual Content Piracy - Intellectual Property. Participant and speaker in national events related to Intellectual Property, organized by the law firm Cervieri Monsuárez and CALPYC. Participant and speaker in international events related to Signal Piracy and Audiovisual Content, organized by Grupo ISOS and CERTAL. Participant and speaker at the "Locademia de Derecho y Tecnología Congress", organized by Red El Derecho Informático. Assistant to other courses: "Abbreviated Criminal Procedure"; "Customs Law Seminar"; "Balance and Challenges of the Adversarial Criminal System in Uruguay. The Role of the Operators"; "The Right to Oblivion in Google Times"; "National Telecommunications Conference"; " Online Crime"; "Social Networks and Law 4.0"; "Digital Marketing and Community Manager"; "Second Legal-Notarial Conferences"; "Course "The New Criminal Procedure under Debate". Languages: Spanish and English.